Studio Art Course Description: Includes art supplies and please read our make-up policy for missed classes. Various Medium Adult Art: Drawing, Watercolor, & Acrylic Painting, still life and portraits. Work on pieces for more than one session. Learn real techniques—don't just copy someone else's painting. You are allowed to bring in "started" works that you need instruction in order to complete. Use oil pastels and/or charcoal on heavy weight drawing papers, watercolor on heavy weight papers, acrylics on artist painting papers, and acrylics on one 16 x 20 canvas. Everyone has the option to do one new canvas painting during this session in addition to the other painting or drawing activities. The cost for the 7 session course is $154.00 which includes the art supplies, and the class size with a maximum of 7 students in the STUDIO class, and the limit is 8 adults in the step-by-step class. There is a once-in-a-lifetime registration fee is $10 if this is the first time you are enrolling.

MAKE UP POLICY: If you miss a class you can come to another class day/time to do a free make-up class for a missed class. All missed classes need to be made up within the 7 week period from the start date of your 7 week course, or by the last course class date. We run multiple classes simultaneously so we can offer the make-up sessions. Any make-up sessions that are not completed within the course time frame of 7 weeks for the 7 session course are forfeited. We do not honor missed class requests from previous years, or previous sessions.
