El Trabajo is a seven week conversational Spanish course designed to build a foundation of useful vocabulary for general office, work and travel related conversation. It is also an encouraging and supportive venue to practice speaking Spanish. You will not find such a small setting that allows you to practice speaking and to learn---min. 3 and maximum 6 students!

Starting Level 1A (for people with no background in Spanish)

Learn to speak correctly and fluidly (not slowly) using AR, ER, IR verbs, as well as irregular verbs, and learn the “going to do” -ING format.

Monday Level 1A 7pm to 8:30pm starts January 28, 2019

Class dates in this course: Jan 28, Feb 4, Feb 11, (skip Feb 18)

Feb 25, March 4, March 11, March 18

Note: this is a beginner level adult Spanish course, although most people that sign up for this course have done some Spanish study during their life, but they are not able to speak the language correctly and fluidly during a conversation.

Our course is divided into classes which cover:

- introducing yourself and sharing how you feel with others
- talking about a service or item that you want to buy or sell
- setting up a schedule with agenda items or activities
- setting up a meeting at a scheduled time
- discussing a problem or concern

In order to speak correctly in Spanish, we will cover the grammar necessary for each subject area listed above. The cost of the 7 session course is $154.00 which includes all class supplies. There is no text book to buy. The instructor will provide the materials, handouts, practice sheets and references. Please bring your own binder to collect these materials and create your own workbook from our Spanish course materials.
